

SUMMARY OF INTERVIEW

Applicants' representative thanks Examiner Strange for participating in a telephone interview conducted on May 6, 2010 and a subsequent telephone interview conducted on May 27, 2010, during both of which applicants' representative and Examiner Strange discussed proposed claim amendments that could place the current application in condition for allowance. During the subsequent telephone interview, Examiner Strange agreed that the amendments made herein to Claim 40 would place the claim in condition for allowance. Applicants' representative agreed to make similar amendments to the remaining independent claims and to amend the dependent claims for consistency with their respective, amended independent claims.
